WE SERVE

51st Anniversary Banquet To Be May 4; "Kansas Profile" Broadcaster to Speak; Make Your Reservations NOW!

Our 51st-Anniversary celebration will be held on Sunday evening, May 4 at the Ritz-Charles Conference Center, 137th and Antioch in Overland Park.

Lion Dottie Bloome says that if you haven't already made reservations you can do so through this Saturday, April 26. Payment of $30 per meal MUST accompany your reservations. Lion Dottie will also need to know what entrée you'll want so she can make final meal arrangements with the Ritz-Charles staff.

The evening's entertainment will feature Ron Wilson (left), director of the Huck Boyd National Institute for Rural Development at Kansas State University in Manhattan. The mission of the Huck Boyd National Institute is to help rural people help themselves.

Mr. Wilson is heard regularly on "Kansas Profile," a weekly radio program produced by the Institute to help achieve its mission. He relates unusual and interesting stories about people and places all around the state.

Each week the program, which has been on the air since May 1992, describes the ideas and achievements of a local leader or entrepreneur in a rural community. By providing positive recognition to such leaders and sharing their ideas, the Huck Boyd Institute hopes to encourage these and other Kansans to build on their examples. In doing so, rural Kansas can be made an even better place to live and work.

Mr. Wilson also writes and performs cowboy poetry.

Kansas Leos Need Help on Service Project: Collecting Books For Alternative Schools

Kansas Leo Clubs will be doing a service project at the Kansas Lions State Convention (May 29-31 in Wichita) that requires help from Kansas Lions. These young people are conducting a book drive to create libraries for area alternative schools. Books from middle-school age through adult level are needed. The Leos will sort the books brought to the convention by Lions. Then the Mulvane Leo club will deliver them to appropriate locations the next week. Any books found to be unsuitable for students will be donated to the Wichita public library for its book sale.

Planning to attend the State Convention? Takes some books with you! Can't go? Then see Lions Neal or Beverly Nichols to arrange for them to take books for you. Today's Leos are tomorrow's Lions! They are learning what "We Serve" is all about. Let's help them out!

2nd Annual Pasta Supper & Silent Auction Helps OP Host Lions Raise Nearly $1,200; CSF II "Model Club" Goal Within Reach!

A large crowd of Lions and friends from around the district gathered at the Overland Park Christian Church on Saturday night, April 12 for our Second Annual Pasta Supper and Silent Auction.

Lions from Eudora, Lansing, Leawood, Lenexa, Louisburg, Scranton, Shawnee, Turner, and the Kansas City, KS Club Branch of the Turner Lions Club were present. Their help in making the event the success that it was is greatly appreciated.

As of Tuesday evening, April 22, almost $1700 had been raised, with "money still coming in," said Lion Treasurer Roger Claxton. Expenses will probably total a little over $500, leaving net proceeds of around $1200. All profit from the dinner and auction will be donated to Lions Clubs International Foundation Campaign SightFirst II (LCIF, CSF II).

Many Lions contributed to the success of the supper, including Ron Bloome, Ken Collyard, Pat Gray, Bryan and Heather Lanigan, and Art Meganck (and as always, we've probably overlooked some!). A few, however, went "above and beyond the call." Lions Dottie Bloome, Mae Claxton, Carole Collyard and Beverly Nichols did much of the planning, cooking, serving, and getting and displaying the auction items.

Lion Dale and Billie Warden deserve special recognition for arranging with the Overland Park Christian Church for use of the facilities.

The OP Host Lions Club is a "Model Club" in the CSF II program. Model Clubs pledge a minimum of $400 per member, to be paid over five years. Contributions from individual Lions and profits from other fund raisers year have brought us close to reaching that goal well ahead of schedule.

Stark(s) Reality

By Lion Ben Starks

The mocking bird was once again on his favorite perch, heralding the breaking dawn with his usual exuberance. Several cardinals joined in, adding their ecstatic morning praises to their Creator, for the blessings of the emerging spring coming to life all around them. Robins were in abundance, eagerly searching while a blue jay chimed in with his raucous cry, heralding the day. A Gold Finch sported his latest sartorial trappings for all the world to admire and envy while the grass glistened in its new spring finery. The forsythia was in its golden splendor while the magnolia tree was just beginning to blossom. The pear and other flowering trees and shrubs were preparing themselves for their moments in the sun, while the jonquils, tulips and pansies vied for their time in the spotlight. All the world's a stage awaiting the grand entrance of the most recent starlet.

As I turn a corner, there appears high up in a tree a strange, seemingly menacing apparition that vaguely resembles the shape of a large raptor, perhaps a red-tailed hawk, but lacking the definition and devoid of color. Then a puff of wind revealed its true identity—a black plastic trash bag lodged in the branches. What our overactive imagination sometimes conjures up, assigning mystic and mysterious powers to the most mundane of items.

How a few hours changes our environment and scenery. What was once so bright and beautiful now lies drab and dripping. The April showers that bring May flowers have made their appearance, temporarily darkening the outlook. Rain! That necessary ingredient for the nurturing of nature has put a momentary damper on things. Water—the very life blood of living plants—can, in overabundance, be the very bane of their existence. How strange that what can be a blessing in moderation can be such a curse and calamity in overindulgence. I guess that speaks volumes to us—to keep everything under restraint and to exercise forbearance in our daily affairs. All we have to do is look to nature as a model and to its Creator for our continued growth in wisdom and knowledge. To Him be all praise, glory and exultation!!

Highest Total in Several Years . . .

Last Week's Candy Days Bring in $1054

Candy Days at Wal-Mart (119th and Metcalf) on April 11 and 12 resulted in outstanding collections, according to Chairperson Lion Janette Reh and Lion Treasurer Roger Claxton. $1054 was collected over the two days by fifteen Lions, the most in recent years.

Helping "man" the collection point were Lions Chuck Binau, Ron Bloome, Roger Claxton, Chris Claxton, Ken and Carole Collyard, Pat Gray, Larry Lavelly, Art Meganck, Neal and Beverly Nichols, Edson Parker, Janet Reh, Paul Roerman, and Ben Starks.

Lion Janet also said that a Wal-Mart grant of $1000 was received as matching funds for last year's Candy Day efforts.

"We Serve" . . . Pasta, Meatballs, Salads

Lion Dottie Bloome hands plates to Twyla Binau and Lion Chuck, while Lions Carole Collyard and Mae Claxton dish up more food for the next in line at the Pasta Supper and Silent Auction on April 12.
